The Shepherd ~ David

But David said to Saul, 'Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it. Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God. The Lord who rescued me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine.'

A shepherd is silhouetted against a hazy, golden sky as he stands on a grassy hillside. In the foreground, a large flock of sheep is gathered, with a dark-colored dog or sheepdog visible among them. The overall scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset.

The Shepherd ~ David

He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and for ever. Isaiah 9:7

who, being in very nature God,
did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage;
rather, he made himself nothing
by taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.
And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself
by becoming obedient to death —
even death on a cross!

Philippians 2:6-8
